LIP22345 436 S.L.C.

Establishing a Women's Bill of Rights to reaffirm legal protections afforded to women under Federal law.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mrs. Hyde-Smith (for herself, Ms. Lummis, and Mr. Cruz) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on

RESOLUTION

Establishing a Women's Bill of Rights to reaffirm legal protections afforded to women under Federal law.

- Whereas male and female individuals possess unique and immutable biological differences that manifest prior to birth and increase with age and puberty;
- Whereas biological differences between the sexes mean that only females can get pregnant, give birth, and breastfeed children;
- Whereas biological differences between the sexes mean that males are, on average, larger in size and possess greater body strength than females;
- Whereas biological differences between the sexes can expose females to greater harm than males from specific forms of violence, including sexual violence;

LIP22345 436 S.L.C.

Whereas women have achieved inspirational and significant accomplishments in education, athletics, and employment; and

Whereas recent misguided court rulings relating to the definition of "sex" have led to the endangerment of spaces and resources dedicated to women, thereby necessitating clarification of certain terms: Now, therefore, be it

- (1) for the purpose of Federal law, the "sex" of an individual means his or her biological sex (either male or female) at birth;
 - (2) for the purpose of Federal law, the terms "woman" and "girl" refer to human females, and the terms "man" and "boy" refer to human males;
 - (3) for the purpose of Federal law, the word "mother" means a parent of the female sex and "father" is defined as a parent of the male sex;
 - (4) there are important reasons to distinguish between the sexes with respect to athletics, prisons, domestic violence shelters, restrooms, and with respect to other areas, particularly where biology, safety, and privacy are implicated;
 - (5) policies and laws that distinguish between the sexes are subject to intermediate constitutional scrutiny and permitted when they serve an important governmental objective and are substantially related to achieving that objective; and
